

Twenty Years of Change: Post-Communist Historiography in/on Central, Eastern, and South-Eastern Europe

organized by the Department of History, CEU, Budapest

15–16 September 2011

CEU, Nádor utca 9, Popper Room

15 SEPTEMBER, THURSDAY

9.30-10.00 Opening remarks: Nadia Al-Bagdadi (Professor, Head of Department, Department of History, CEU), Constantin Iordachi (Associate Professor, Department of History, CEU), Balázs Trencsényi (Associate Professor, Department of History, CEU)

10.00-11.40 FIRST PANEL

Chair: Matthias Riedl (Assistant Professor, Department of History, CEU)

Gábor Klaniczay (Professor, Department of Medieval Studies, CEU): Medieval Studies after 1989 in East-Central Europe

György E. Szónyi (Professor, Department of Department of History, CEU): The Rebirth of the Renaissance: Developments of Early Modern Cultural History in Hungary and Central Europe since the Fall of Stalinism

11.40-12.00 Coffee break

12.00-13.40 SECOND PANEL

Chair: Alfred Rieber (Professor Emeritus, Department of History, CEU)

László Kontler (Professor, Department of History, CEU): Early? Modern? Central? Europe? Reflections on Hungarian, Slovak, Czech and Polish historiography, c. 1990-2010

Balázs Trencsényi (Associate Professor, Department of History, CEU): Discoveries, Disenchantments, and Discontinuities: (Re)writing the histories of modern political thought in East Central Europe after 1989

13.40-14.30 Lunch break

14.30-16.10 THIRD PANEL

Chair: Marsha Siefert (Associate Professor, Department of History, CEU)

Susan Zimmermann (Professor, Department of Gender Studies, CEU), Alexandra Ghit (PhD student, Gender Studies, CEU): Troubled Waters. Institutionalization, Paradigms, and Trends in Women's and Gender History

Tijana Krstić (Assistant Professor, Department of Medieval Studies, CEU): Representations of Conversion to Islam in Recent Historiography of Southeastern Europe

18.30 Dinner

16 SEPTEMBER, FRIDAY

9.30-11.10 FOURTH PANEL

Chair: Karl Hall (Associate Professor, Department of History, CEU)

Katalin Szende (Associate Professor, Head of Department, Department of Medieval Studies, CEU), Markian Prokopovych (Assistant Professor, University of Vienna): Urban Historical Scholarship in East Central Europe during the Last 20 Years

Alexei Miller (Visiting Professor, Department of History, CEU): The Romanov Empire in historiography of post-communist Europe

11.10-11.30 Coffee break

11.30-13.40 FIFTH PANEL

Chair: Victor Karády (Professor, Department of History, CEU)

Constantin Iordachi (Associate Professor, Department of History, CEU): Coping with the Totalitarian Legacy: Studies on Fascism in East Central and South-Eastern Europe

Péter Apor (Research Fellow, Past, Inc., CEU): The History of Everyday Life: Deconstructing Communism?

Taku Shinohara (Associate Professor, Czech Studies, Tokyo University of Foreign Studies): East European Studies in Japan after 1989

